

Washington Prep Athletics Network is the official website provider for many leagues and conferences in Washington. The websites have the most accurate and up to date information for schedules, scores & standings for all schools in all leagues and conferences as entered by the Athletic Directors and Coaches from each school for every sport at every level of play. Any games that are rescheduled or cancelled will be posted on the league website by the Athletic Directors. Please visit this website first and often for any information you are looking for. Below are detailed instructions on how to SUBSCRIBE to your school and any sport(s) you choose. By subscribing to your school and sport(s), you will receive instant updates via email when a change has been made to a schedule regarding the sport(s) you subscribe to.

1. Visit your league/conference website.
2. On the right hand side, you will see the  button, click it.
3. An EMAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS box should pop up. Follow the instructions and select the option that best describes what you are trying to do. (ie: New Member Registration, Current Member Login)
4. For New Member Registration, continue to follow the instruction below. For Current Members, login then skip to #10.
5. Next you will need to verify that you are a real person by entering in the code you see in the box.
6. After you verify, fill out the registration form.
7. You will then see a REGISTRATION SUBMITTED box and you should receive an email at the email address you provided (don't forget to also check your junk box).
8. Click the link provided in the email then continue to follow the instructions.
9. After you have successfully saved your registration, you will see the STAY CONNECTED box.
10. Click on the orange subscribe button and select the school(s) and sport(s) you wish to subscribe to. Once completed, you can also subscribe to individual school's twitter accounts to receive tweets about schedule updates.
11. You are now successfully registered!
